Physician Hospital Leadership & Medical Education

These St. John's physicians were the front-liners of the COVID-19 response every day in our ICU, ED and facility-wide. They worked four months straight fulfilling their mission of service to our community, and in some cases did not go home in fear of exposing their own families. With their leadership, we expanded our ICU capacity by 333% while also treating hundreds of COVID symptomatic patients in the ED.

This team worked alongside their colleagues, and our incredible nursing and ancillary staff dealing with gravely ill patients each day. These doctors are well respected practitioners in the best of times. In the worst of times, they cared for truly sick individuals in a scary moment of history and inspired us all.
